

POETRY.

OH NO, I NEVER MENTION IT.
A new song to an old air, respectfully inscribed to a sympathetic Public, by their indiscreet servant,
PETER GRIEVOUS.
Oh no, I never mention it,
Nor wish it to be heard;
My trembling lips refuse to speak
That too familiar word,
From place to place I hurry me,
Still seeking to forget;
But ah! the duns do worry me,
I feel—I am in debt.

They bid me seek in other scenes,
The change no more I see;
But were I in a foreign clime,
They'd find no change on me.
'Tis true that I no more should view
My tradesmen in a row,
Collectors would not brow me,
But I should dread of debt.

Oh when I think of former days,
By Love and Cash made bright,
When yellow boys and black-eyed girls
Gave life and spirit to delight,
I feel 'tis vain to struggle with
The feelings of regret:
The boys went first, and then the girls,
And now—I am in debt.

Ah, blessed time! when every sound
A note of joy conveyed,
When billet-doux were current coin,
In courtship's pleasant trade,
Now notes of hand alone I view,
By notice to be met;
And many a lengthened bill due Reminds me—I'm in debt.

They tell me she is happy now
Who loved me long ago—
They say that she forgives me, now
My funds are getting low,
I heed not what they say, for I Believe her faithful—yet
She cannot feel what I have felt,
For she is not in debt.

THE NULLIFIERS.

Who first praised Martin Van Buren,
and voted for him in Georgia?
The nullifiers!
Who curse him, and vote against him?
The nullifiers!
Who first told us he was a democrat,
and man of talents?
The nullifiers!
Who didn't tell any body in 1824 and 1832 that he was in favor of the Missouri restriction?
The nullifiers!
Who didn't tell any body in 1824 and 1832 that he was a tariff man?
The nullifiers!
Who were as well acquainted with his political acts in 1824 and 1832, as they are in 1836?
The nullifiers!

Who told all these tales on Mr. Van Buren now, which they kept so dark in 1823 and 1832?
The nullifiers!
Who can tell whether they were in earnest then, or playing possum now?
Nay, but the nullifiers!
Who got mad with the genuine republican Philip P. Barbour, when his name was announced?
The nullifiers!
Who sent delegates to the Baltimore convention from Georgia in 1832, to nominate Martin Van Buren?
The nullifiers!
Who abused the Baltimore convention of 1835?
The nullifiers!
Who voted down John C. Calhoun and nullification in the Legislature?
The nullifiers!
Who are now in favor of John C. Calhoun and nullification?
The nullifiers!

Who quarrelled with General Jackson about the Proclamation and Force Bill?
The nullifiers!
Who named it the "Bloody Bill" and sawed they would support no man whose hands were stained with the guilty transaction? The nullifiers!
Who abused the "Bloody Bill" from day to day, and week to week?
The nullifiers!

How long did they continue to pour out their maledictions upon it?
Until the Tennessee BELL was fairly hung on the neck of Judge White, and its toes began to beat the Presidential tune!
How did they get over the "Bloody Bill" affair?
Why—th-th-they "just drapt it!"
Who don't talk about the "Bloody Bill" now?
The nullifiers!
Who called the Union men Tories
The nullifiers!
Who called Andrew Jackson a tyrant and usurper?
The nullifiers!

Who didn't know what to say or which way to look when Van gave the casting vote upon Calhoun's amendment?
The nullifiers!
Who knows Gen. Harrison to be an abolitionist?
Every body!
Why?
Because he wants the people taxed to raise money to buy their slaves, and set them free!
Who will support Gen. Harrison in preference to Mr. Van Buren?
The nullifiers!
Who were the loudest for many years,
in their opposition to the U. S. Bank?
The nullifiers!
Who took sides with the Bank, when Gen. Jackson took measures to break it down by removing the deposits &c.
The nullifiers!
Who predicted ruin and desolation to the country when the deposits were removed?
The nullifiers!

Who don't speak much on that subject, since the country prospers and the people are happy?

The nullifiers!
Who don't talk much about nullification in these latter days?
The nullifiers!
Who are trying to "divide and conquer"
the Union party?
The nullifiers!
Who can't do it?
The nullifiers!

THE BIGGER FOOL THE BETTER LUCK.

I have seen men merely by noise and fluency, lead the conversation in companies where there were taste, talent, and learning, though they possessed neither of the three.

I have known lawyers to gain their causes, by impudence and vociferation, who neither themselves nor the jury knew precisely their drift.

Men have frequently taken their seats in the legislature, because they begged suffrage, and gave away whiskey, while those who disdained to stoop to such measures were left at home.

I have seen a brainless fop marry a fine girl, and break her heart before the end of the first year, though her hand had been solicited in vain, by the wise, and the honorable.

I have seen stupid creatures, who scarcely knew the top of a tobacco hill from the bottom, plod on and get rich, while men of real intellect and industry have pined in poverty.

Did you never see a part, or all of these things?—If you did not, I congratulate you on your prospects of good luck:
for you possess the qualities to which it is promised by the adage.

A countryman about to alter his condition, appeared before an English magistrate to swear to the affidavit required by the marriage act, when, on its being read to him, he complained that he didn't understand it. "Not understand it," said his worship, who was a new made knight, and not overburdened with sense—"Not understand it; why you must be quite a fool." "No I be'n't quite a fool," said honest old drily, "but I be very near one."

NEWS FOR THE LADIES.—All the fashionable boarding houses at Saratoga Springs are filled to overflowing. That's not the news, however—but among the ladies of the supreme bon ton, tight sleeves have completely superseded the generous bishopp!! We fear it will require more than the influence of the bon ton to persuade our girls to follow this fashion, and the influence of the press if brought to bear would certainly be overruled by the Dry Goods men, who have too much interest at stake to allow this fashion to gain a predominance. Only consider! half a yard of chintz for two sleeves, when it now requires five yards for one! We should wonder if two political parties were formed to decide this important question, who will call themselves the Full Sleeve and Anti-Full Sleeve Party. Wonder how Granny Harrison will vote on that matter, and whether his red flannel article had sleeves
—if so, whether tight or loose—we move the girls write him on the subject previous to the election.

THREE GREAT PHYSICIANS.—The bedside of the celebrated Dumoulin, a few hours before he breathed his last, was surrounded by the most eminent Physicians of Paris, who effected to believe that his death would be an irreparable loss to the profession. "Gentlemen," said Dumoulin,
"you are in error—I shall leave behind me three distinguished Physicians." Being pressed to name them, as each expected to be included in the trio, he answered, "WATER, EXERCISE, and DIET."

BECKWITH'S ANTI-DISPETIC PILLS.

FOR the cure of almost every variety of functional disorders of the Stomach, Bowels, Liver and Spleen; such as Heart burn, acid eructation, nausea, headache, pain and distention of the stomach and bowels, indigestion, diarrhea, colic, flatulence, habitual constiveness, loss of appetite, sick headache, sea-sickness, &c. &c. They are a safe and comfortable aperient for Females during pregnancy and subsequent confinement, relieving sickness at the stomach, head-ache, heart-burn and many of the incident nervous affections. Literary men, students and most other persons of sedentary habits, find them very convenient. Those who indulge too freely in the pleasures of the Table, find speedy relief from the sense of oppression and disten-tion which follow, by taking the Pills. As a dinner Pill they are invaluable. Those who are drinking mineral waters, and particularly those from southern climates and ague and fever districts, will find them a valuable adjunct. Those who are exposed to the vicissitudes of weather, on voyages or journeys, can take them at all times with perfect safety. In full doses, they are a highly efficacious and safe Anti-bilious Medicine. They seldom or never produce sickness at the stomach or griping.

Their efficacy is strongly attested by certificates
from the following gentlemen, viz:
Bishop Ives, Rev. Dr. McPheeters, Rev. G. W.
Freeman, Rev. B. T. Blake, Gov. Iredell, Hon.
Henry Potter, Hon. G. E. Badger, Hon. Richard Hines, Thos. P. Devereux, Esq. Professor Anderson, Will. Hill, Esq. Secretary of State,
Will. S. Haywood, Esq. late Treasurer, Jas. Grant, Esq. late Comptroller, W. R. Gales, Esq. of the Register, Capt. Guion, Guion's Hotel, Dr. R. C.
Bond, Dr. E. Crosby, Dr. J. Y. Young, &c.
These Pills are for sale, by appointment, in almost every Town in the United States, and Wholesale and Retail by the Subscribers, to whom applications may be made by Agencies.

BECKWITH & JUMP.
Raleigh, N. C. 1835 55.

TO RAIL ROAD CONTRACTORS.

PROPOSALS will be received, at the Boll-ingbrook Hotel at Petersburg, Va. on the 8th day of October next, for the Excavation, Embankment and Masonry, of forty miles of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road.

Plans and Profiles of the work will be exhibited at the place above mentioned for ten days previous to the letting and all other information will be given on application to the Subscriber or any of the Assistant Engineers on the line.
Recommendations will be expected in all cases of persons not known to the Engineer.

CHARLES F. M. GARNETT, C. E.
P. S. For the information of persons at a distance, I would state that the Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road is a continuation of the Petersburg and of the Greensville and Roanoke Rail Roads, from the Roanoke to Raleigh, in the great line of Northern and Southern travel.
This Road is located on a high and dry ridge of country, which is considered remarkably healthy—and the mildness of the climate, admitting of operations in the open air throughout the winter, makes it peculiarly desirable to those wishing winter jobs.
The facility of travelling is so great now, by the Baltimore and Washington and Richmond and Petersburg Rail Roads that the trip from Philadelphia to Petersburg may be performed in four hours. The trip may be performed in the same time by the Bay, on three days in the week.

D. PRATT'S, Artificial Nipple Shield.

FOR the prevention and cure of Sore Nipples. The following highly respectable certificates are deemed a sufficient recommendation for those who are afflicted in this manner, to try them.

From Doctor Wm. P. Dewees, late Professor of Obstetrics, in the Medical University of Philadelphia:
Doct. ELIJAH PRATT:

DEAR SIR: As I feel it a matter of much importance, to possess a means of lessening the terrible sufferings from sore Nipples; I have much pleasure in being able to say, that the "Shield" you offer for the preventing and the cure of this malady, is better adapted to the purpose than any I have heretofore seen. In the two or three instances I have known them to be used, much satisfaction has been expressed;
and I have no hesitation to believe it will generally succeed: I am so well persuaded of this, at this moment, that I cannot forbear to express a wish that our city, through the various Apothecaries, may be supplied with them.
I am yours, &c.

M. P. DEWEES, M. D.
Philadelphia, Jan. 13, 1834.

From Dr. Thomas Seawall, Professor of Anatomy and Physiology, Columbia College, District of Columbia:

WASHINGTON CITY, 4TH FEB., 1834.

Having examined Dr. Pratt's newly invented Nipple Shields, and witnessed its practical application, among my patients, I take great pleasure in recommending it as decidedly superior to anything previously known. It constitutes a perfect remedy for that distressing malady, Sore Nipples; a disease which so frequently afflicts young women.
